

IIT-GN SIGNS MOU WITH US COMPANY TO INCREASE GLOBAL CONNECT

IIT-Gn announced the signing of an MoU with Nielsen, an American global information and measurement company to support international opportunities for its undergraduate students. According to the agreement, the research firm will fund awards at the institute to enable undergraduate students to participate in international conferences, workshops and internships that offer them broad global exposure.