

It was Total Blitzkrieg

CULFEST Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar (IITGn) hosted its annual culfest Blithchron '13 on campus on Saturday where students from across the state participated. Day 1 of the fest had a BMX show (a style of bicycle racing with tracks having obstacles in the way) that saw professionals of SharpTune from Mumbai. Events like Adrenaline, LAN Gaming, Euphony, solo singing competition, Synchronize - group dance competition, etc, were the highlights of the day. The fest also had an online photography contest titled The Lens Law. The best ones were then put on display. Day 1 finished with fashion show Panache that saw models display some interesting outfits.
