

Translate into the World of Literati

The world of literature is set to open its doors in the coming week at Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar (IITGN). Tarjuma - The Festival of Translators 2013, a coming together of translators, publishers, poets and scholars celebrating the art of translation, will be held on July 25 and 26 on the institute premises. The two-day event will see some of the best in the business interact and share their knowledge. Besides the interactive sessions, a book, Mazha Pravaas: Adventures of a Brahmin Priest, written by the late Vishnubhat Godse and translated by Priya Adarkar and Shanta Gokhale, will also be released on the occasion.

The fest is all about celebrating translators who have 'brought Sharad Chandra Chatterjee from Bengali to Gujarati, taken Gandhi from Gujarati to

SPEAKING IT RIGHT

Arshia Sattar; Arunava Sinha; Astri Ghosh; Bill Wolak; Gita Chaudhuri; Lakshmi Holmström; Mallika Sarabhai; Mini Krishnan; Namita Gokhale; Neerav Patel; Nivedita Menon; Priya Adarkar; R Sivapriya; Rakhshanda Jalil; Rinita Banerjee; Rita Kothari; Shanta Gokhale; Sreedevi K Nair; Srinivas Reddy; Supriya Chaudhuri; Susheela Punitha; TVijay Kumar; Tridip Suhrud; Urvashi Butalia and Vanamala Viswanatha

Malayalam, and carried Kalidasa from Sanskrit to English". It is a way to discuss these 'artistes' and their works, efforts and bring their contribution in front of the world.