

IIT to conduct 3-day short course on geo-technics

Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar (IITGn) will conduct a short course on 'Geo-Technical Investigation for Structural Engineering' from Thursday, November 13 to Saturday, November 15. The course aims at familiarizing participants with fundamentals and contemporary topics on expectations from Geotechnical Investigations for design of structures. Also, it aims to familiarise participants with international best practices.