

Published Date: 21 Oct 2013

IIT-Gn hosts 'Amalthea 2013'

Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar (IITGn) hosted a two-day summit 'Amalthea 2013'. Dr Kazutaka Kurihara, who invented a device called 'SpeechJammer,' which disrupts a person's speech from distance, presided over the final day of the summit. During the event, chief scientist and research director at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), Dr Kamlesh Lulla, advised the young engineers to think interdisciplinary to become an engineer.

Sweden India Nobel Quiz organised

The Sweden India Nobel Memorial Quiz was organised at PDPU Gandhinagar on Sunday, where the Ahmedabad round was won by Kanika Agarwal. Quiz master Aditya Nath Mubayi hosted the regional round, where the participation was open for all college teams. The team consisting of Kanika, Anshul Kharbanda and Vaibhav Kaushik will now compete for the national title at the grand finale in New Delhi on November 16. The Inter-Collegiate quiz competition is organised every year as a part of the Sweden India Nobel Memorial Week, which celebrates the spirit of the Swedish innovator, entrepreneur & philanthropist Alfred Nobel.

Copyright restricted. For reprint rights click here