

SEMINAR THAT DEPICTS INDIA

IIT Gn's Imagining India course, that takes students to the real India to understand its different and diverse realities, had a two-day seminar of the same name on Saturday and Sunday. Prof Rita Kothari and two students put together the workshop. Day 1 saw SEWA director Mirai Chatterjee talk on 'Gendered Spaces', CEPT president Bimal Patel talked about 'An India that lives in its cities' and IIMA Prof Vijaya Sherry Chand on 'India and Education'. On Day 2 Prof Tridip Suhrud, director of Sabarmati Ashram Trust, spoke on 'Seeing India through Gandhi's eyes', Aditya Handa, promoter of Abellon group, spoke on 'India and energy' and Aakash Srivastav, director, Prabhavya Refreshments gave a talk on 'India and the social media'.