AHMEDABAD: The highly secure doors of Physical Research Laboratory \(PRL\) will soon open for students of Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar \(IIT-GN\).

PRL and IIT-GN have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) which will enable the engineering students to use the laboratories and facilities of PRL. PRL scientists will also be visiting faculty at IIT-GN.

"This is a seamless MoU to facilitate exchange of students and faculty and allow collaboration between scientists and engineers of both institutions. Faculty from both institutions will also be encouraged to give lectures and teach courses at the partnering institutions," said director of IIT-GN, Satosh Jain.

As a part of the MoU, a joint PhD programme has also been initiated. Under this programme, the participating students will obtain their degrees from IIT-GN. They will follow an academic programme recognized by both PRL and IIT-GN.
