Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar, (IIT-Gn) and Srinakharinwirot University in Bangkok have joined hands to bring a more global dimension to their curricula and research. The two universities signed an MoU at IIT-Gn campus on Monday. IIT-Gn and Srinakharinwirot University will exchange students for joint degree and non-degree curricula, faculty members and staff, academic materials and carry out joint research activities and publications. They will also participate in seminars, workshops and academic meetings.
