

Published Date: 24 Jan 2015

Scholarship for excellence in arts & culture at IITGn

Two scholarships are available to students who are excellent in arts and cultural activities. II, III & IV year undergraduate students of IIT Gandhinagar are eligible for this scholarship. The SSPC interviews all the applicants to decide the awardees. All the awardees are eligible for Rs. 2,000/- p.m. for ten months. However, if the student is also a MCM/freeship/Free Basic Messing and Pocket Allowance awardee, then the student is only eligible for a one-time receipt of Rs. 5000/-.

International Conference on Global Diaspora held at Nirma

The Second International Conference on Global Diaspora was held recently, at the Institute of Management, Nirma University. This international conference had been organised with the joint cooperation of Nirma University, Ahmedabad, World Association of Global Diaspora Studies (WADIS) & The Research Center for Overseas Korean Business and Culture, Chonnam National University at Gwangju, South Korea and the State University of New York at Binghamton, USA.

SMU organises job fair today near Prakash school

Sikkim Manipal university has organised a job fair on January 24 from 9 am onwards at Prakash higher secondary school. The fair will be open for students of the university in the area of banking, insurance, finance, telecom, digital marketing, BPO, KPO and retail. Opening are for freshers and people with an experience of upto five years.

news

buzz

Jo Baka

send us campus news, events happening at your college or schools, or if you have an opinion send it on report2dna@gmail.com

Copyright restricted. For reprint rights click here