

IIT-Gn to host 'Bada Khana': The permanent campus of Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar, in Palaj will host its first occupants on Saturday as over a hundred students from the graduating batch plan to spend a night at its newly constructed hostel. A huge feast has been arranged in the evening for the students and employees of the institute, construction workers, officers and other well-wishers.