

RAKSHA SHAKTI UNIVERSITY, IIT-GN TO STUDY RATHYATRA

Raksha Shakti University and IIT Gandhiangar are going to jointly study Lord Jagannath's Rathyatra on Wednesday to find ways to efficiently use technology to ensure smoother yatra in future. The joint exercise will culminate in a report, which would be submitted to Gujarat police.

Vikas Sahai, Director General Raksha Shakti University said, "One professor and two students from IIT-Gn and one professor and two assistant professors from Raksha Shakti University will observe the Rathyatra tomorrow. We will find out areas where technology is not being used at all or is not used effectively and suggest ways to change that."
