

IIT-Gn holds vocational training programme

Neev, a community outreach programme of the Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar (IIT-Gn) expanded its activities from 'entrepreneurship training' to include 'vocational skill development training' for grassroots workers. The programme started its first vocational skill training course on Monday at the institute's Palaj campus. The two-month-long course is supported by the Desai Foundation from the USA.